

New ARS Canada Volunteer Award

ARS Canada established a new award to be given to a high school graduate who has volunteered at school during the year and shown an interest to help out his/her classmates and teachers with school work.

The 2015 winners were Stephen Joly from ARS High School, Toronto and Araz kubtanjian from Sourp Hagop High School, Montreal.

