

A.R.S. HERITAGE DAY 2011 ARTSAKH

The Armenian Relief Society (A.R.S.) “Roubina” Chapter Artsakh Heritage Day (“Dohmig Or”) was celebrated on October 1, 2011 at the newly renovated Armenian Community Centre in Toronto.

The A.R.S. “Dohmig Or” Committee prepared and published a booklet containing the history, culture and traditions of Artsakh.

Approximately, 500 guests were present at this event. A banner indicating “Free Artsakh Greets You” was displayed in the hall. Committee members and some guests were dressed in traditional Armenian costumes, and danced to the music played by an Armenian band. Traditional ornaments from Artsakh, such as, rugs, pottery, paintings, needlework were displayed. A variety of ethnic dishes and desserts, that were local to Artsakh, were enjoyed by all.

This successful event allowed all those who were present to enjoy Armenian culture food and traditions, and increase their knowledge through the use of the published booklet.
